

Case for Support Template

This is only the beginning of the process and this template can be a helpful activity to identify what the real message of your project is to funders, before you write your Statements of Significance and Statements of Need.

The Need (what is the scale and nature of the problem?)

The Solution (your proposal, the rationale, community support)

The Outcomes (what will be achieved for wider society?)